Denholm's strengthens UK network with Kirkwall acquisition

The agency office of John Jolly's in Kirkwall has been acquired by Denholm Port Services Ltd.

John Jolly's have been Denholm's sub-agent in the Orkneys for many many years, and this move is the culmination of a close existing relationship and shared cultural ties.

Existing staff will continue to manage activities as usual and the address and email details remain unchanged.

The acquisition further strengthens Denholm's UK network and also complements the office in the Shetlands established last year
