Fowey

'Destination of the Year' – Seatrade Cruise Awards 2024

Fowey, located on the south coast of Cornwall, is a deep-water port accessible in all weather and states of tide. The ship's mooring is just a stone's throw from the landing pontoon and passengers couldn't be closer to the heart of this beautiful Cornish town.

Fowey has a strong Celtic connection, maritime history and literary involvement with Daphne du Maurier, Rosamunde Pilcher and many more, including the successful Poldark series.

The picturesque town centre has a variety of shops and eateries to enjoy, all set amongst the historic buildings of Fowey. As the ship becomes the centre of attraction you are assured of a proper Cornish welcome from the local community.

Fowey is also perfectly positioned for visits to world-famous visitor attractions, with the Eden Project, Lost Gardens of Heligan and Bodmin Jail all within a short distance of this historic port.

Our recent Seatrade Cruise award focussed on Fowey's bespoke excursion options and how our community has worked together in collaboration with local businesses to develop a multilingual destination map and online resources to provide passengers with inspiration of what they can see and do in the local area.

We look forward to welcoming you to Fowey and helping to create a unique and special experience for passengers.

Top Five Facts about Fowey

1. Nestled within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB), the Fowey Estuary is treasured for its unspoilt natural beauty. The creeks and coves are home to a diversity of wildlife which are protected by a Marine Conservation Zone, which can be explored by boat or SUPs. Steeped in maritime history, the buildings of Fowey tell the tales of its past. The ancient castles at the deep-water entrance once guarded the harbour from Spanish fleets and, in the heart of the town, the towers of the 14th-century St. Fimbarrus Church and 15th-century Place House stand proud.
2. Your ship will truly take centre stage on its mooring right in the heart of Fowey – passengers can immerse themselves in the Cornish lifestyle whilst the ship will be the 'talk of the town'. Passengers will be welcomed by the Town Crier and multilingual maps will guide your passengers around the diverse range of attractions and experiences that Fowey has to offer, which has made Fowey the Seatrade Cruise Awards 'Destination of the Year'.
3. Fowey was the home of the famous writer Daphne Du Maurier and you'll live and breathe the inspiration for her novels. Fowey also has literary links to Rosamunde Pilcher, Kenneth Grahame's 'Wind in the Willows' and the Poldark series.
4. The world-famous Eden Project and Lost Gardens of Heligan are just a short journey away. Enjoy the sub-tropical paradise of these gardens which thrive in our mild Cornish climate or in contrast, discover the nostalgia of steam travel with a journey on Bodmin Railway, Cornwall's leading full-size railway operated by steam locomotives. Located in close proximity is Bodmin Jail, built in 1779, it provides a world class experience offering immersive history at its finest.
5. A diverse range of shore excursions are available including distillery and culinary experiences. A Guided Distillery Tour and Tasted Tasting, a Gin or Vodka School Experience, or Gin/Vodka Masterclass at Colwith Farm Distillery is a must! Learn how they make their own plough to bottle vodka and gin on this family-run, award-winning sustainable farm and then have a go at mastering it yourself!
