

Fifth cruise terminal for Southampton

Southampton

Enter the UK's leading cruise port and you're stepping into a city that has welcomed explorers for thousands of years.

Step back in time at the Tudor House and Garden for a glimpse of how the wealthy lived in the 15th century. Uncover tales from the Titanic tragedy at the SeaCity Museum, anchor yourself in the Gateway to the World exhibition, and hear of Southampton's diverse history.

Walk the walls! The medieval city walls once defended this important port. Walk through the beautiful Old Town to see the Bargate, an iconic 12th-century gatehouse that still stands proudly after more than 800 years. Visit God's House Tower, an interactive family-friendly venue, where history comes to life.

Nature lovers will find peace in the city centre parks displaying Victorian landscapes, flower tunnels and water features. Outside the parks, stroll into cafes for your important cup of tea with cake.

For a cultural fix, visit Southampton City Art Gallery boasting an impressive collection spanning six centuries of art. If you have time for a matinee performance, we highly recommend the Mayflower Theatre which was built in 1928 and has world-famous touring shows.

Feeling peckish? Southampton famously first trialled 'fish fingers', and now offers chip shops and British pub experiences for visitors wanting to try fish and chips for themselves. Southampton has bundles of historic pubs with friendly service, perfect for testing out your first British roast dinner, traditional pie or a pint of ale. Southampton welcomes all cultures, and this is represented in the diverse restaurant offerings available, offering food from every corner of the globe.

Staying longer? There are hundreds of events in the city so whether you want to listen to music, cheer along Saints at a football match, watch Hampshire County Cricket Club or play in our many interactive venues, check out the Visit Southampton website for all the options.

Step out in Southampton, where the past meets the present, and every visit turns into a memory you'll treasure.
